

Diaspora Eguna Mintzagai

Basque Studies at Boise State University is once again issuing a call for presenters/participants via Zoom on September 8th, 2022 to commemorate - Diasporen Eguna - Day of the Basque Diaspora. This short conference provides the opportunity for graduate students to showcase their work and for organizations to share their accomplishments and opportunities for collaboration. This is open to all interested in Basque Studies, either as a presenter or participant. It will be:

NOIZ/when: Thursday Sept. 8, 2022 Diaspora Eguna

8:00 Boise (MST) / 11:00 Buenos Aires / 16:00 Euskadi

>Note the schedule and Zoom link will be posted on September 1st at

<https://www.boisestate.edu/basquestudies/diaspora-eguna-hizketa/>

- Graduate student presentations will be based on the three minute thesis model where the presenter summarizes their research in no more than three minutes.
- Presenters for an institution will highlight one accomplishment, and announce a potential opportunity for collaboration.

Presentations can be in any language, but please include English powerpoint slides that you will operate when you present. If you would like to be considered for a presentation, please complete the section below and return it via email to johnysursa@boisestate.edu by Monday, August 22nd, 2022.

On September 1st, we will post the agenda and Zoom link for the virtual gathering. Please share this with others that might be interested in joining this online conversation. Hope to have you there to commemorate Diasporen Eguna - Basque Diaspora Day on September 8th and to promote Basque Studies.

Ikusi arte,
John Ysursa, Meggan Laxalt, John Bieter