

BASQUE PUBLISHING

BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY ... AND BEYOND

In honor of Basque immigrants who had the courage to journey to a place far from home, and those who have worked to preserve Basque culture through education.

THE EXHIBIT

ALBERTSONS LIBRARY
November 2 — End of Fall Semester
1st Floor Exhibit Cases

- Scholarly Work about Basques
 - Faculty and student work
 - Theses and Dissertations
 - BOGA Journal and academic publications
 - Academic Symposia
- Old World to New World
 - Early publishing about Basques
 - Basque Country and the American West
- Basque Publishing Worldwide
 - Basque books by authors from the Basque Country and Diaspora

THE TALK

ALBERTSONS LIBRARY
November 14, 2:00 pm
2nd Floor, Frank Church Room

- Meggan Laxalt Mackey, Boise State History undergrad, graduate student, and adjunct faculty Basque Studies
- The process of publishing a book:
LEKUAK - THE BASQUE PLACES OF BOISE, IDAHO
- Using ones' academic work as a foundation for public education and publishing
- A cultural journey that explores sense of place and ethnic identity

